

Counselor Resource List

As we talked about on Sunday, seeking counseling is not failure and we are proud and encouraged you are taking this bold and courageous step. Below you will find a list of counselors here in Missoula who our leadership team has either seen themselves, or who have been recommended to us through trusted members of our community. Additionally, all counselors on this list are Christians. Some work within specific faith based practices and approaches, while others see clients who do not have a faith in Jesus.
